

ALRID Mary Lou Bingham Award Nomination for Sue Scott

Nominated by: Jill Sheffield

Sue Scott is the co-matriarch of interpreters as is Mary Lou Bingham. She has inspired, nurtured, and helped to educate more interpreters than any other person I know. If not for Sue Scott I would not be in this gratifying profession. She is the ONLY person who was willing to spend time with me and actually hold my hand while I was a “baby interpreter” five years ago. I am now an NAD (level 5) and RID certified interpreter. I owe Sue Scott more than I could ever repay. She, more than any other person I know, deserves this award. In fact we should have a “Sue Scott” award in my opinion! ☺ I hope to be able to return the favor to other “babies” as I can. She is the “Mother” to many!!
