President's Message

Spring is almost here and the weather seems to finally be warming up. I apologize for this late addition of the ALRID News. Our editor, Amelia England, gave me a deadline and once again I'm about a week late in getting her the President's report. We have been steadily working towards some kind of revision to the ALRID requirements to be on the court approved list. I know there have been lots of speculation about what the intent is for doing this so let me try to explain my intent. I'm one of those old interpreters who graduated from the school of hard knocks. I can remember my first time in a court room feeling inadequate and out of place. For me, like many of you, it wasn't the first time I had felt this way as this is how we learned back then. It's great to see our profession evolve to the point where the emphasis is put on "training" interpreters instead of feeding them to the fire. I was approached by David Sawyer back in the Fall of 2010 and asked about doing some training with ASL interpreters in relationship to legal interpreting. I saw this as a great opportunity to train those who work in the legal field to be more qualified. I've been subpoenaed to court because I turned down an interpreting assignment and that was the judge's way of "gently" reminding me that I would be there to interpret. Did I have the right to refuse? I wasn't sure because I had no training. When I was told what the rate for legal interpreters was I put my name on the list. This isn't how we need to do business and was why I asked Dr. Laurel Standley to represent ALRID in a meeting with David Sawyer to begin the process of developing training to qualify interpreters wanting to work in the legal setting who do not have a Legal Certificate from RID. We are not developing landmark training here. We are simply providing training to ASL interpreters that are already mandatory for foreign language interpreters. The Administrative Office of Courts (AOC) does not have the statutory authority to require this training to ASL interpreters but ALRID develops the list and decided it would be in the best interest of the interpreter to require this "orientation" class along with a certain amount of training hours annually. The class was developed and a date was determined. You all received an email from me stating that the class has been cancelled. This was due to some perceived conflicts and communication issues. The Webster's online dictionary states one of the definitions for communication as "a process by which information is exchanged between individuals through a common system of symbols, signs, or behavior." I've learned from the national level to the local level that although we are the experts at facilitating communication we are horrible communicators. The class along with more brainstorming sessions related to legal interpreting will continue. There will be opportunities for membership input and no changes will be made without giving sufficient notice to allow interpreters time to meet any new requirements. The goal here isn't to exclude anyone from working but instead to give those working more tools to be better qualified while working. In other news the ALRID Board is near completion on revising the Bylaws and will have a Board work session to tackle the PPM. Our goal is to have one day membership training later in the year where this information will be presented for approval. If you have ideas of what type of training you would like to see provided by ALRID, at the state level, please feel free to contact me. Lastly, please consider attending the AAD conference this coming June. It will be the 100th anniversary celebration and there are lots of great things planned for this conference. One of my favorite quotes from Mama Lou was "Get With the Deaf!" I truly believe this and encourage you all to do just that by attending the AAD Conference.

Happy Spring,
Melvin

Classroom Interpreting: Resources, tips and discussion, Oh my!
Presented by
Belinda Montgomery

Tuscaloosa RID had a wonderful workshop on January 22nd at Alabama Department of Rehabilitation Services in Tuscaloosa on 1305 James I. Harrison Jr. Pkwy East,

Belinda Montgomery did an awesome job at presenting "Classroom Interpreting: Resources, tips and discussion, Oh my!". We learned so many resources and tips in the classroom interpreting. We thanked Belinda for taking the time to present her workshop for us. It was a great turn out and we hope to have many more in the future. For those of you who lives in Tuscaloosa county, we would love for you to come join our Tuscaloosa RID group, we have a great group of people who provides mutual support in the community.

On January 22nd, the TRID hosted this workshop which drew in participants from surrounding states as well as across the state of Alabama. Presenter Belinda Montgomery arrived to a packed room of interpreters, many of whom were educational interpreters, teachers and school administrators. Points of discussion during the workshop included the EIPA and qualifications for educational interpreters, interpreting and language and the effects of delayed language on learning in children, the differing roles of the educational interpreter and how those roles may change depending on the age level of the child, and interpreter and teacher rapport and how to work together for the common goal of the child in the classroom. Belinda's laid back personality set a tone for the workshop that allowed for open discussion between the participants. It provided a wealth of information to participants regarding "best practices" for educational interpreters as well as many resources on the topic of educational interpreting. The participants were a great networking group as well and had many shared resources among the group. The TRID and the presenter were very pleased to see the participation of teachers and school administrators whom valued their perspective and insight into working with interpreters in their classroom. Comments from participants at the close of the workshop were very positive and complimentary of the presenter. From the large turnout of participants, it shows how important this topic is and hopefully will lead to educational interpreters and school systems to seek further trainings around this topic.

Recently on January 22nd, the Tuscaloosa Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf had a workshop with 32 participants. The workshop was called "Classroom Interpreting: Resources, tips and discussions, Oh my!" Belinda Montgomery was the presenter and had a wonderful informative presentation on educational interpreting. The participants joined in and asked many questions and had a lot of discussion concerning interpreting in an educational setting. The Tuscaloosa Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf appreciates Belinda coming to Tuscaloosa and presenting this workshop.

"Qualified interpreters," as defined by Alabama law 12-21-131, must complete a basic course in interpreting in legal interpreting. This course will be offered semi-annually by ALRID. In 2011, the course will be offered on Friday, May 13th, at the Administrative Office of Courts, located in the Supreme Court Building at 300 Dexter Ave, Montgomery, AL. The approximate times are 8:00am-4:00pm. RID CEUs will be offered. The course will cost $25 included lunch. Interpreters must meet certain certification requirements to register for the course. Additional details about the course location and its requirements will be announced, as well as a link to the AOC Judicial College online registration page for the class. Proof of attendance must be submitted with your application packet.

More details to follow! Please keep checking the www.alrid.org for more updated information.

Celebrate Deaf Literacy and Legacy

Purpose

To reach out to our diverse community, increasing their awareness of the rich history of the deaf and of the various library resources that will benefit the public — deaf and hearing. By observing National Deaf History Month, offer an occasion to celebrate the legacy and many contributions made by people who share the personal, familial or societal deaf experience as well as instill in our young deaf/hard of hearing students their own legacy and their self worth.

Confirmed Presenters

"Introduction to Hearing/Deaf Interpreting"

Adrianne Clegg, RID Certified Interpreter & Randy Shaw, Certified Deaf Interpreter

"Laurent Clerc: His life and Importance to Education"

Sue Galloway

(great, great, great granddaughter of Laurent Clerc)

"The Contributions of Notable Deaf People in America"

Paul William Ellis

Both sessions are OPEN to the public – Deaf and Hearing. All sessions will be presented in ASL and English.

Friday Session | FREE to the public

Saturday Session (lunch buffet included) | $35 before 3/15/11 / $45 after 3/15/11

On March 13, 2008, the National Literary Society of the Deaf (NLSD), a reading promotion partner of the Center for the Book, unveiled a new national project at the Library of Congress. It is called "One Book" Reading Promotion Project: Deaf America Reads, 2008 - 2011.

Ricardo Lopez, NLSD president said, "This project is a wonderful opportunity for the national deaf community to get together to discuss the same book during the two-year project." The book selected for "One Book" is Moments of Truth: Robert R. Davila, the

Story of a Deaf Leader, by three co-authors, Harry G. Lang, Oscar P. Cohen, and Joseph E. Fischgrund. (2007 by RIT PRESS in Rochester, NY)

The project purpose is to broaden and deepen an appreciation of reading and to encourage the national deaf community to share experiences while reading the same book.

Julie Bourne, National Association of the Deaf board member says, "We must emphasize the importance of local and state level deaf-related organizations collaborating with local libraries across the nation to promote books and reading."

The NLSD mission is to promote deaf culture, books, and literacy through library programs and exhibits.

International Institute of Deaf Services is partnering with NLSD in this project: I HELPED MAKE AMERICA GREAT – I HELPED MAKE ALABAMA GREAT.

We will continue this program on March 25, 2011 at 10:00 am during our National Deaf History Month celebration, Celebrate Deaf Literacy and Legacy, at the Five Points West Branch of the Birmingham Public Library, 4620 Avenue V Ensley, Birmingham, Alabama 35208.

2011 Silent Dinner List

At the December 2010 silent dinner, those in attendance developed a list of restaurants as possible locations for the 2011 Silent Dinners. I used this list as a guide and tried to choose different locations and different types of menus. We will continue to meet on the second Thursday of every month. Try to arrive by 6:30 pm to make sure we can get tables. The Silent Dinner is a signing only experience. Please do not use your voice even on the outside of the restaurant. This is a wonderful way to get to know members of the Deaf community, local interpreters and other persons interested in sign language in the Birmingham area. Please feel free to e-mail me back if you need more information regarding a location. We hope you will join us.
